SACCO INCIDENT SPARKS OFF "IMPROVE OUR REFS" DEMAND

MANY Association and club officials who in the past have pressed for a "fair go" for referees expressed concern last week-end lest soccer's headquarters, Olympic Park, be brought into disrepute by the flow of incidents brought about by sub-standard refereeing.

Cause for the renewed concern was sparked off last Saturday by the handling of the Hakoah-Juventus match.

According to some independent officials, a game that was brilliantly attractive in the first 30 minutes deteriorated to a near-fiasco. And, let's be blunt, they blame the referee.

Referees have a most difficult and thankless task, and cannot be expected to see every incident in a game. But they are expected to apply the laws of the game correctly.

Hakoah officials felt duty-bound to protest to the council against the handling of the match.

"We are not protesting against the result," said Mr. K. Defris, secretary of Hakoah. "We are appealing neither for a replay nor for the points involved. We simply feel it our duty to officially draw the attention of the Association to the fact that incompetent referees are being assigned to First Division games at Olympic Park.

"Last Saturday we felt the referee erred seriously by not penalising our opponents after one of our players, Sacco, was knocked unconscious and carried from the field," he alleged.

"Furthermore, the referee did not allow 'time on' for the eight minutes which were lost because of the incident," he added.

DR. CHARLES WALKER, A VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE ASSOCIATION, SAID THAT HE FELT THE CONSIDERATION OF LOCAL REFEREEING STANDARDS HAD NOW BECOME A MATTER OF THE UTMOST URGENCY.

"The Soccer Association and the Referees' Association have worked on diverging lines for far too long," he said. "They must get together and work together if the problem of inconsistent refereeing is to be solved.

"Apart from my own observations," he continued, "the fact that the League Management Committee had to deal with six protests last week, all of which disputed referees' decisions, is significant.

"I intend to bring the matter before the Soccer Council at the earliest opportunity."

WHAT A MATCH!

THREE cheers for Hungary, or, should we say, Melbourne, the little Metropolitan South side! They didn't get off to the predicted rip-roaring World Cup win at Olympic Park last Sunday, but they did set the fans talking — and roaring (writes Lionel Pickering).

What a match! Scotland, despite all those injuries, cracked the Magyar lads wide open in the opening half with some really great soccer. By the 16th minute they were three up — thanks to galloping Bill Copeland. There was no holding him as he tore through to crack home a ten-minute hat-trick.

But if Scotland took the first-half honours, the rest of the game went to Hungary.

Seven minutes after the interval, blond-haired Joe Voros streaked through for number one. Four minutes later he was there again with a so cool lob over the keeper's head, and, as excitement mounted, it happened.

Voros — what a player! — crashed in the equaliser.

Never before have I seen the fans so wildly excited.

My best: Voros (centre-forward), Louis Varnai (inside-right), Lew Urban, for Hungary; and Copeland and skipper Wemyss, for the Scots.

Stuart Beaton is full-time
secretary now

MR. STUART BEATON was unanimously appointed full-time secretary of Council at a special meeting on Monday.

Although the qualifications of the remaining six seeded candidates for the position were of high calibre and provided strong competition, Mr. Beaton's eight years' experience with the Victorian Association, and his familiarity with the intricacies of the affairs of the Executive, the Council, the many Standing Committees, and the Leagues, swayed the meeting in his favour.

Thirty-eight applications were received for the position, including candidatures from places as distant as Queensland, New Zealand and England.

PLAYER ATTACKS REFEREE

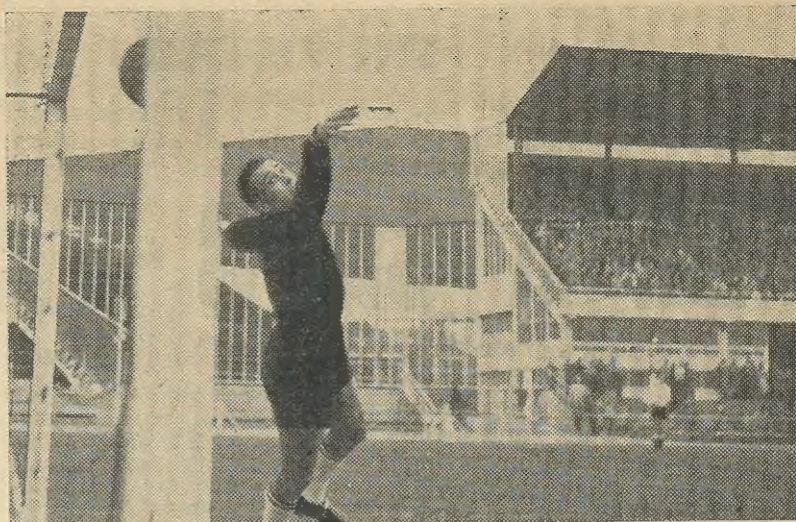

THE only local derby in the first round of the Dockerty Cup, South Melbourne United v. Port Melbourne, ended suddenly last Saturday when the referee, Mr. McCarthy, was assaulted by a Port Melbourne player and declared the match abandoned.

South Melbourne had just scored the only goal of the match after 20 minutes of play, and the players were about to return for the kick-off when the referee was attacked, and, it is understood, knocked unconscious.

The offending player was due to appear before the Disciplinary Committee on Thursday — after this issue had gone to press.

The first step to finding the answer to Morrie Buckner's "64-dollar question" about Polonia's slide down the ladder in last week's "Soccer News" will be taken tomorrow when the Polonia club convenes a special meeting to discuss that very subject.

Viti, of Juventus, was well-beaten by this shot in the match with Hakoah at Olympic Park last week, but he needn't have worried — a close look will show the linesman's flag upraised for off-side!

Brothers go into Coburg's team two by two . . .

COBURG UNITED claim they're the most brotherly team in Australia — and they've got four pairs of brothers to prove it!

They're S. and T. Galea, E. and L. Sacco, W. and A. Clements, and F. and J. Farrugia.

And just to keep things kind of NOAHmal, leader E. Sacco notched both goals against Hayduk last week!

To-day, brothers Joe and Fred

Farrugia will be at brother Tony's wedding. Reserves will fill the gaps.

The three odd men out are Charlie Tellus, Tony Peregrina and Joe Borg.

Probably next best as a family affair are Sunshine. They've got four Hitching brothers in their side.

Rumours have been confirmed that Slavia's Johnnie Dickson, hitherto regarded as the confirmed bachelor type, will shortly announce his engagement to a lass by the name of Shirley Brock. It can be stated that there is no basis to wild conjecture that he only did it to win Shirley away from Australian Rules football and convert her to soccer!

Waiting to jump into the Metropolitan North are Melita S.C. They're dead keen and are first on the "vacancies list."

Pity Rosebud. They were drawn to meet Bendigo in the Dockerty Cup last Saturday and had a return journey of 300 miles!

THE REFEREES' PAGE

Continuing our new series by a top referee on the tricky problems that occasionally trip up referees as well as spectators. This week he warns against those on-the-field "conferences," and says . . .

BE A SNOB -- don't talk to the players!

NOT so long ago a referee cautioned a player when the referee spoke to his linesman and the player persisted in trying to hear what was said. And that caused an after-the-match discussion. Was the referee right?

The answer is, of course, that he was. No referee worth his salt is going to allow players to eavesdrop while he speaks to a linesman or other players.

That player was guilty of misconduct because he was ordered away and disobeyed the referee by staying.

Time and again, at Olympic Park this season, I've seen referees allow players to crowd round while they admonish a player for dirty play.

And this really does surprise me.

There's nothing worse to see than a referee make a half-hearted attempt to be firm with a player while groups from both sides mill round arguing the toss, pushing and shoving, and waving their arms at him.

It should be stopped, immediately. A referee must never allow, under any circumstances, all and sundry to debate his decisions. When he does he loses complete control of the game. And he shows everybody on the ground that he is a weak referee.

A rule that has improved the game considerably in Russia might well be introduced generally. No Russian player is allowed to argue with or question a referee's decision.

If a dispute arises the captain is the mouthpiece of the team. And, I might add, the system works wonderfully.

It cuts out squabbles, for players know that the referee has power to give them marching orders if they "play up."

It's unlikely, of course, that Victorian soccer will become as strict as that, though certainly it would clear the game of the temperamental types.

Clubs could help themselves and the game generally by drumming into their players that they will not tolerate "referee-baiters." For, in the long run, the clubs are black-eisland pre-warned referees quickly use their authority to get rid of troublemakers.

"Accidental" Fouls.

Many defenders complain if a penalty is awarded after they have handled the ball to protect their face. But they are wrong.

Referees have no option, except under very exceptional circumstances, but to penalise them. It would become a very peculiar game if, as some people imagine, this sort of thing could be done with impunity.

A player should be penalised only if he infringes the rules, intentionally of course. But some players wrongly believe that the word accidental can be stretched to cover any manner of offence.

For instance, the rules make it quite clear that there can be no such thing as "accidentally jumping into an opponent."

That is as it should be, for otherwise players would be prepared to argue every time they skittled an opponent with a dangerous leap that they were jumping to the ball and had no intention of colliding with an opponent.

KEEP SPECTATORS IN CHECK

Sir,—Having witnessed at the Yallourn v. Hellenic match on May 11, an occasion where the home side were given the advantage of a goal because spectators adjacent to the home goal put the ball back into play after it had passed the goal-line, I think it is well nigh time that the Victorian Soccer Association took steps to ensure that high spirited spectators do not interfere with play.

In this instance it was unfortunate for the visitors that the referee's view was obstructed.

Incidents of this nature too frequently occur, to the jeopardy of the good name of soccer.

I think it calls for the following resolutions:

(a) That the V.A.S.F.A. take disciplinary action, against the clubs concerned.

(b) That the V.A.S.F.A. take steps to provide official linesmen at matches of this nature.—Yours, etc.,

F. B. STEPHENS.
60 Parkway, Yallourn.

SUBSTITUTES.

Sir,—Your most timely editorial last week touched one of the most important aspects of modern soccer. The present archaic substitution regulations are greatly detrimental to the development of the game.

I entirely disagree, however, that V.A.S.F.A. cannot do anything about introducing its own substitution law. This cannot be true, as each Association or Federation may decide what should be the rules of its own competition.

In international matches, British teams do not change players, but other nations do so. In a recent match, between Sweden and Denmark, a Swedish centre forward was replaced. Incidentally, on advice from his coach, he feigned injury and, as a result of an "inquest," the coach and team manager were sacked by the Swedish F.A. In several Eastern European national championships substitutions are also allowed.

I sincerely believe the V.A.S.F.A. could make its own substitution rules right now.

I suggest a new law should be introduced, permitting substitution of the goalkeeper for the whole match and one more player up to the 60th minute.

It should be left to the referee's discretion to decide whether the injury was genuine or otherwise.

Yours, etc.,

M. FRIDMAN.
Flat 4, 27 Ruskin St., Elwood, S.3.

REF. WAS WRONG.

Sir,—Would you settle the following query? In the South Melbourne v. Preston game the centre-forward had the ball when he received a hefty charge 18 yards from the goal. The referee immediately blew and most of the players, including the goalkeeper, stopped play. But the centre-forward, who had managed to retain possession, shot the ball into the net. The referee awarded a goal. Was he right? He claimed afterwards that he was employing the advantage rule; but I maintain the advantage rule is employed when the whistle is not blown.

This "goal," incidentally, brought South Melbourne an equaliser a few minutes before the end of the game.—Yours, etc.,

"PUZZLED" (Thornbury).
[The referee was wrong.—Ed.]

More about the Argus medal — Bill Fleming's view

Sir,—I would deem it a favour if you would allow me space to correctly answer a letter written jointly by Messrs. J. Radovinovich and Z. Danillo, of West Brunswick, to "Soccer News."

These gentlemen asked in brief: Why are the points awarded by referees each week for Victoria's Best and Fairest player not published?

When the "Argus" newspaper ceased publication early this year, I decided to keep alive the medal at my own expense. Previously, in 1954, the Victorian Soccer Council approved wholeheartedly of the idea and the Council has not been notified that the medal would discontinue.

I approached the Referees' Association secretary, Mr. T. Dignam, as had been my custom in previous years, asking if the referees would again co-operate. The referees agreed and I have undertaken to pay all expenses incurred.

Because of the situation which cropped up last year when, on the last day of voting, two players were opposed at the same match with equal votes, it was felt that too much responsibility was placed on the official, who was more or less compelled to make a casting vote. I thought a repetition of this unfair to the referee.

Mr. Dignam agreed with me that it would be better to leave the envelopes containing the votes sealed until the end of the season, when they will be opened by the executives of the Referees' Association and myself and the winner announced.

Most soccer fans I have spoken to agree that this is the best method, as is the practice with best and fairest votes in other sports.

However, readers may have different views; perhaps a competition among readers as to whom the final winner will be may prove interesting.—Yours, etc.,

BILL FLEMING.

GEORGE CROSS SURE OF TWO MEDALS ANYWAY!

GEORGE Cross — that's the right name for medals. The Maltese side mean to scoop them all this season. And they've even invented a couple of their own! There's a gold medal lined up for the best and fairest man in their first team, and a silver medal for the reserve player with the equivalent rating.

From the Association they plan to take pennants for the Second Division and Reserve premierships. To-day they're set to avenge their first-round defeat against dangerously close South Melbourne.

George Cross reckon they've got the men to make this their championship year — like leader Debono, who crashed a 25-yard header against an upright last week. To-day he moves out to the left-wing to make room for Zammit, back after illness. Back to-day, too, is left-back Gruppetta.

South Melbourne aren't perturbed. "We were at long odds to beat them in the opening game," they say, "but we inflicted their only defeat to date, and don't appear likely to be beaten by them this time."

But they do admit there's a slump. United blame it on the loss through injury of left-back Bert Neill. Against George Cross may be full-back Bruce Forsythe in what could be his only first team game this season. He sails home to Scotland next week.

Sandringham City outside-left, John Fletcher, injured in the game against Ferntree Gully a fortnight ago, is in Heidelberg Hospital — with a broken leg. Sandringham had four regulars out of action after the Gully game. But Hyndman, Gardiner and Sutherland, who missed last week's "real thriller" against St. Albans, are back in to-day's line-up against Port Melbourne.

Who was that man from mighty Moreland who quoted Melbourne odds on to quash their Dockerty Cup hopes . . . ?

Man of the match for Bonegilla last week, say George Cross, was their brilliant goalkeeper. He even saved a penalty — right in the angle of the post!

PRAHRAN CITY'S first team goalkeeper, Dan Drobrilovic, has moved to J.U.S.T., and 'keeping for City now is Johnnie Brown — and he's just 17.

He got his big chance to jump from the juniors to the first team when Dan was out recently through injury. And he played so well it guaranteed him a regular place.

Say Prahran: "He's a 'natural' and should go a long way in soccer."

Centre-half Peter Ewing is back with the City. His first game was against Slavia last week. Prahran say, too, right-back Taffy Morgan has never played better. He's just out of the Army.

Lolly lends a helping hand

J.U.S.T. star, Lolly Veila, has taken over training St. Albans. He lives in the district and will have plenty to do with St. Albans' re-organising and recruiting. St. Albans have signed three players: R. Skidmore, E. Fanell and a Yugoslav new arrival, Toni Debevc.

Division 1 review by Morrie Buckner

A GRAND GAME — FOR 30 MINUTES!

JUVENTUS climbed another two places on the League table when they defeated Hakoah at Olympic Park last Saturday, and the ladder begins to look a little more normal, with Juventus on the third line.

Unfortunately, only the first 30 minutes of the game could be regarded as a League match — the rest was pure shemozzle. In that first half-hour, the big crowd saw a lot of fast, exciting football, with the two teams as evenly matched as twins.

Hakoah were first to score, at 25 minutes, when right-winger Eggler drove a corner kick right into the goal-mouth. Viti got a hand to it, but couldn't control it — and the ball was in.

In less than three minutes, Juventus equalised when Aranyi headed in a corner kick from Saico.

Not Penalised!

Then came the debacle. Sacco (Hakoah) contested a ball with Bottari in mid-field, moved away, then turned to see Bottari lying on the turf. He went back and hauled Bottari to his feet — and was immediately attacked by Juventus players and allegedly knocked out by one of them.

Six minutes elapsed — some timed it as eight minutes — while Sacco was treated and removed from the pitch on a stretcher. During his time, captain Tom Jack was told by Referee Allan that Sacco was to remain out of the game.

BUT JUVENTUS WERE NOT PENALISED IN ANY WAY FOR THE ATTACK ON SACCO!

Nor did the referee use his discretionary power to play time on at the end of the half for the substantial period lost.

Hakoah Upset.

Hakoah, already upset by the incident, became further unbalanced in the second half when Bill Blackley and Tom Jack sustained ankle injuries, and were left for practical purposes with only eight fit men.

Equality was only partially restored when Picinich was sent off after a clash with Peterson, and in the circumstances, Hakoah did well to lose by only 1-3.

Geelong stopped Moreland's undefeated run of six matches when they got the upper hand and scored twice in the second half while holding Moreland scoreless at Geelong.

Arrangements are being made to enable Olympic Park patrons to book reserved seats for the Victoria v. Queensland matches, to be played June 15 and 17, at an office on the first floor of the grandstand.

Mr. Charles Dodd, independent councillor and chairman of the Social and Status Committees, is in hospital, but recovering satisfactorily from last week's operation.

Both Viti and Peterson (No. 9) were off the mark in this tense goal-mouth flurry last week at Olympic Park, and it remained for Kassai, of Juventus to head the ball clear.

Metropolitan round-up

UNIVERSITY, a much improved team in the METROPOLITAN NORTH this season, attribute most of their success to their new coach, Hungarian refugee Theodore Horlitzer, and the good line-up of players this season (writes M. Paul).

We wish them luck at Brisbane where they are due to play in an inter-Varsity competition this week-end.

Lions gave Preston a fright in their first round of the Dockerty Cup, pulling up from 5-0 to draw 6-6 after extra time. Left-winger Jimmy Ellams had his best day for the season, to score three goals for Lions. Left-back Fred Dobrowolski suffered an injured knee, but Lions welcome back to-day at centre-half Manfred Zeuske, after a holiday in Berlin.

Heidelberg not surprisingly won their first round, too. They hope to match last year's performance, and reach the third round.

Club with a problem is Fairfield. They need a goalkeeper, and Tom Cherryholmes is out with a broken ankle.

THE first round of the Dockerty Cup last Saturday brought mixed fortunes for METROPOLITAN SOUTH clubs. Melbourne, who had a bye, are the only team assured of entering the second round, but Sandringham City, who drew a hard, well-refereed game against St. Albans, and Rosebud, who could not reach a decision against country team Bendigo, were both confident of victory in their re-plays to-day (writes Don Sutherland).

Pascoe Vale found Newborough United too good, and will now concentrate on team-building for the league games ahead. Ferntree Gully visited F.N.D., but the Navy team were in good form and won a close game.

POLICE WEAKENED.

Vic. Police, weakened by the absence of West, Higgins and Dixon, were very pleased with the clean brand of football provided by Park Rangers, who defeated them comfortably 4-0.

Police say their faults were Rangers' virtues — co-operation and going for the ball. Best players for Rangers; centre-forward and right-back.

The Police club are finding their friendly fixtures on Sundays a great success. Friendly games against country clubs and teams not playing in a league all help considerably in publicising the game.

A feature of the Police friendly games is that, when possible, visiting clubs are taken to Russell Street, and given a glimpse of behind-the-scenes activities of the Police Force!

JUNIOR SOCCER

LAST Saturday's junior soccer produced a crop of results which may have lasting effects on the various league ladders (writes Barry Matthews).

In the Under 20's, Sunshine City suffered their second defeat — against Box Hill "A." Over recent weeks, Box Hill have emerged as a threat to the leaders, with good wins in their games.

Another result which will have aroused much interest was Juventus' 3-0 victory over Broadmeadows.

Early in the season, Broadmeadows suffered heavy defeats, but last Saturday's performance may be a standard for future weeks.

ANOTHER WIN.

St. Kilda Under 15's, by virtue of their 4-0 victory over Brighton, have further established their lead in this division.

In the Under 13's, top team, Sunshine City "A," played the second team, Essendon, in a game which resulted in a win for City. Sunshine now have a three-point lead over their nearest opponents.

The trials for the State junior team continued last week-end. This time, a side of State squad players met Essendon Under 20's. The game resulted in a 1-1 draw.

This week-end another State team will play Juventus Under 20's at South Melbourne's ground at Middle Park (3 p.m.).

The following players are requested to be at the ground at 2 p.m.:-

ST. ALBANS: Centre-half, centre-forward, inside-right, inside-left, right-half.

Division 2 details

IT'S "back to the grindstone" for Second Division clubs this week in the grim struggle for league points. Match-of-the-day sees the two leaders meet at Princes Park, where South Melbourne will endeavour to repeat their opening-game-of-the-season victory over George Cross and so regain league leadership (writes Des Hamilton).

George Cross appear to have the edge to turn the tables unless South Melbourne can snap out of their recent slump.

Yallourn, Richmond, Hellenic, and Preston are all up close with the leaders, and still have a good chance of reaching the First Division.

Competition looks like being just as keen after to-day as these four — all are home drawn against the bottom teams — should take the points.

Yallourn were too good for Croatia last week — but they wasted several chances. However, on this form, says assistant secretary May Caldwell, they should do well in cup matches.

Fit after injuries are Bathgate and Neudlinger.

Austria-Italy clash tomorrow

EXPECT another good match at Olympic Park to-morrow, for Austria, tipped by many people to go far in the competition, take on Italy, last year's finalists, in the second round of the World Cup. The match starts at 3 p.m. The Italian team, sponsored by Juventus, must be favourites, however. They are more or less the same side that represent the Division 1 club.

Austria include Neuhold (Hakoah), J.U.S.T.'s Ardner and Brenner, and Petzimas and Swoboda from Polonia. So there's won't be much in it.
